

Wedding

BIEGEL - BRYENTON

Father McGillvary officiated at the recent marriage of Gail Bryenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bryenton of Grande Prairie; and Peter Bernard Biegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Biegel of Bluesky. The ceremony was in St. Joseph's Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon lace and tiered net, over a bouffant skirt of slipper satin. A pearl-studded coronet held in place her veil of illusion net. She carried a white satin muff covered with a spray of sweetheart roses.

Maid of honor, Miss Judi James of Edmonton, and bridesmaids Miss Judi Campbell and Miss Eleanor Biegel, wore identical gowns of slipper blue satin. They wore matching hair bands and carried muffs with sprays of pink sweetheart roses.

The groom was attended by Cliff Turner and John Lorenson. Ushers were Norman Les-Bill Pisarchuk of Edmonton, lie of Dimsdale, Eddie Biegel of Fairview and Martin Biegel of Grande Prairie.

The mother of the bride wore a three-piece pink double knit suit with brown accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a beige crepe dress, brown accessories,

A reception for 200 guests was held at the Park Hotel banquet room. Jack Soars proposed the toast to the bride. Mrs. Elsie Jebb was in charge of the guest book. The wedding cake was decorated by Mrs. Edna Flohr.

Out-of-town guests were from Red Deer, Edmonton, Dawson Creek, North Star, Manning, Bluesky, Fairview, Rycroft, Semsmith, Bezanson and Tupper B.C.

MAJOR PRIZE in the Grande Prairie Kinsmen Club's Kinfall bingo last night stayed in the city. Mrs. W. Bumback of 10107 - 104 Ave. won $3,000 in a blackout game. Still excited this morning, Mrs. Bumback said she and her husband "don't plan on doing anything rash, just put the money away for a while." An occasional bingo player only, this was Mrs. Bumback's first major prize. Second major prize of $1,000 was taken by Mrs. Arthur Bryenton of the city. "I could hardly sleep last night," she said. "We're going to use the money to pay off our house." Other winners in the Kinfall bingo, in which $6,000 in cash was up for grabs, hold up their prizes.

The Senators

An informal group can regularly be found in the Grande Prairie Co-op store's cafeteria drinking coffee and discussing world problems. For that reason management and staff at the store Thursday presented The Senators, as the group is known, with a special Christmas cake. The men, most of whom are retired, have been gathering in groups of between 10 and 14 every morning for about 10 years. On hand for the presentation were (left to right) Guy Lefferson, Walter Durda, Bill Sutherland, Ed Coney, Albert Sebastian, Fred Maile, Henry Dumas, Clarence Sjerdal and Art Bryenton. Absent when the picture was taken were Fran Donald and Jack Crummy.

4 Anniversaries

THE CHILDREN OF Mr. and Mrs. Art Bryenton invite you to a tea to be held Sunday April 9 at the German Canadian Hall (Fair Ground) in honor of their parents 50th wedding anniversary. Open house at 2 p.m. Tea will be served at 3 p.m. Everyone welcome. No gifts please.
