5-Mile crib tournies open to everyone

By MILDRED LAWRENCE

FIVE MILE — Winners at the crib tournament Nov. 12 were Bert Balderson and Chester Sorgaard, and Erna and Herb Kadatz. There wasn't too large a crowd showed up and this could be blamed possibly on date changes and lack of advertising. These tournaments are open to everyone with the next one being Nov. 26 at 8 p.m. Charge is $5 each — see you there.

Congratulations to Dorothea Mansfield and Myrtle Gordon who were one set of trophy winners at the crib tournament held at Bezanson Nov. 2 when there was a large turnout.

Congratulations to Elaine and Lonnie Cissell on the birth of their daughter Amber Dawn on Sunday, Nov. 10. She has a four-year-old sister at home. Paternal grandparents are Lilian and George Cissell of Bezanson and maternal grandparents are Tony and Frances Doll of the area who now have 19 grandchildren.

Barbara and Ritchie McRae spent a couple of weeks holidaying in Kelowna area and other parts of B.C.

We spent four days at Edmonton Farm Fair taking in the dairy shows and sales, sheep sale and show, and heavy horse pull. It sure makes a big difference with the new Agricom building. While it is still not finished it makes it really nice to not have to travel away from the showplace for meetings, banquets, etc., which are all part of the fair. It was really cold in the Edmonton area and they have more snow than we have, but the roads were good.

It looks like winter is here a little early maybe but we are so much better off than those with floods and storms they have never seen before.

Just a reminder that our snowmobile raffle is still on and our draw date is fast approaching. The Prairie Mall and Co-op store will be the scene of ticket sales in December. Like to give us a hand? Call 532-6794 or 532-6260. If you have your books sold you might like to hand them in.

Upcoming events are:

Crib games Nov. 26, at 8 p.m. Everyone welcome.

Annual meeting Nov. 28, at 7:30 p.m. Election of officers and directors' reports. Things are looking good for our grant money applications. You are asked to attend and hear all about it.
