Mobile home lost, seeks fee refund

Gerald Moody, a Bezanson resident, may soon get relief from the County of Grande Prairie to the tune of $59.36.

Mr. Moody, in a letter to the council, said a mobile home he owned was floated away when the Smoky River flooded in mid-June.

As a result, he placed a skid shack on the property and asked the county to refund him the $59 he paid for his mobile home licence.

Councillor Bill Boyd (Bezanson) agreed with the request, adding there should be some compensation to the flood victims.
